The 'Earn It or Lose It' Challenge Continues!

Like taxes, change in the healthcare realm is a constant we can count on. The Quality Payment Program is no exception. Whether you're well positioned to earn additional reimbursement or face cut-backs as this program moves forward is all in how informed you are and in how your practice manages the changes required. This is not for the faint of heart. Challenge on!

Join AHIT for updates on the QPP and how they may impact your success.
