Recreational Vehicle

Travel in a Ford motorhome that sleeps up to 7 with all the comforts of home - air conditioning, gas cooktop, refrigerator, microwave, shower, fresh water toilet and generator. Your first 600 miles are included as well as a $200 American Express card for gas. Enjoy your class C motorhome with V-10 chassis engine, automatic transmission, 2-wheel drive, power brakes, power steering, cruise control, and stereo sound system. Insurance is also included with a Zero Deductible Plan. Best of all, it's pet friendly. Your fur-family member can travel with you in comfort, just make sure your destination is pet-friendly as well. If you're still not convinced, check out the following possible destinations.

Mount Rushmore National Memorial

Mount Rushmore features 60-foot sculptures of the heads of former United States presidents George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt and Abraham Lincoln, carved into the granite face of the mountain. The entire memorial covers 1,278.45 acres and is near Keystone, South Dakota.

The Grand Canyon

Experience the beauty of the Grand Canyon's landscape. Nearly 280 miles long and up to 18 miles wide, the Grand Canyon was formed by the Colorado River which flows through the canyon.

Fall Foliage Tour

Experience the brilliant show of color in many parts of the United States put on by nature every autumn. From bright yellows to vibrant reds, the leaves transform, showing their rich and vibrant hues. Every year, people flock to these areas to take in the fall foliage, to catch a glimpse of nature's splendor.

Route 66

The original Route 66 — the Mother Road — ran from Chicago to Santa Monica, California, and was featured in John Steinbeck's 1939 novel "The Grapes of Wrath" and the 1960s television show "Route 66." It was taken out of the U.S. highway system in 1985 but is now divided into various National Scenic Byways.

Arches National Park

Arches National Park preserves over 2,000 natural sandstone arches, like the world-famous Delicate Arch, as well as many other unusual rock formations. In some areas, the forces of nature have exposed millions of years of geologic history. The extraordinary features of the park create a landscape of contrasting colors, landforms and textures that is unlike any other in the world.

Blue Ridge Parkway

Outstanding scenery and recreational opportunities make the Blue Ridge Parkway one of the most visited sections of the National Park System. Split-rail fences, old farmsteads, mountain meadows and scenic overlooks with endless vistas make the Blue Ridge Parkway a popular attraction.

Yellowstone National Park

The first national park in the U.S., the largest supervolcano on the continent, and the home of Old Faithful, myriad other geysers, waterfalls, grizzly bears, wolves, bison, and elk. Mostly in Wyoming, the 2.2 million-acre park is larger than Rhode Island or Delaware. And don't miss Mammoth Hot Springs, where calcified rock has carved terraces and sculptures right into the landscape.

Colonial Williamsburg

The Historic Area of Colonial Williamsburg stretches over 301 acres, and includes 88 original 18th-century structures. Hundreds of houses, shops and public outbuildings are reconstructed on their original foundations.

Albuquerque, New Mexico

There's a lot more to do here than look at filming locations for "Breaking Bad" and "Better Call Saul." Nob Hill, the ABQ BioPark, and the Sandia Peak Tramway just scratch the surface of this place's natural beauty.

Note: Driver must be 21 years of age or older with a valid driver's license and a major credit card. Pick up available in the following states: Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, and Washington.
